

Civil War—Searching for Confederacy

Experience authentic North Carolina heritage in many unique ways while savoring the charm and character of an area rich with centuries of history, adventure and discovery. History buffs are drawn to Salisbury-Rowan County, NC for its rich background with treasurers spanning over two centuries of history. From the early days of Daniel Boone and Andrew Jackson, through the involvement of NC in the Civil War and General Stoneman's raid into the golden age of rail transportation there is something to interest everyone.

Tours includes the following landmarks:

Salisbury National Cemetery ~ Old Rowan County Courthouse
St. Luke's Episcopal Church ~ Old English Cemetery ~ Freedman's Cemetery
The Confederate Monument ~ Josephus Hall House ~ Governor Ellis House
Wayside Hospital Site ~ Government Hospital Site ~ Salisbury Arsenal Site
Site of Rev. Thomas G. Haughton's Home ~ The Old Lutheran Cemetery
Salisbury Confederate Prison Site

❧Purchase tickets at the Visitors Center or by calling 800-332-2343❧

Children (under 5): FREE

Children (5-10): $7.00

Adults: $10.00

The tour begins & ends at the Salisbury-Rowan County Visitors Center located at ❧ 204 East Innes Street Salisbury, NC 28144 ❧